

Jack Daane
355 North Fremont Street
San Mateo, CA 94401
KR6CD
jackdaane@earthlink.net

I am opposed to allowing RFID tags to operate at high power and for long periods of time on 425-435 MHz because they will interfere with amateur radio operations in the United States. Amateurs use this range of frequencies for television, moon bounce, Morse code, and linking repeaters.

Jack Daane, KR6CD